

Finance for Non Financial Managers

Participate more effectively, and with confidence in financial planning and meetings.

Who is it for?

This one day workshop is suitable for team leaders and managers with little or no financial knowledge who need to become more actively involved in the financial matters of their project, functional area or organisation.

Overview

A key element of a manager's role is to effectively control budgets and allocate funds as and when required to ensure a smooth running of their departments or business. In the current market it is also essential they understand the financial implications of their day-to-day decisions to increase profitability and performance. The workshop concentrates on showing how to apply a range of financial planning, and monitoring tools and techniques, while focusing on the needs of the business.

Workshop Objectives

- Understand profit and loss statements and balance sheets.
- Know the difference between cash flow and profit, capital and revenue, expenditure and budgets.
- Understand how to use ratios to analyse financial figures.
- Apply the principles of effective budget management.
- Analyse information from budget reports.

Investment

Total investment for this one day workshop is £140 per person. Alternatively, this workshop can be delivered internally to your organisation for a total investment of £1154, irrespective of how many delegates from your organisation attend. This cost includes all relevant materials but excludes any costs associated with the venue.

ilm Accreditation (optional)

For an additional investment of £59.00 per person, and on successful completion of this workshop and associated action plan, the Institute of Leadership and Management will acknowledge the participant through the Development Award and twelve months ilm membership, which includes access to online support materials, study guides and career development support.
