

Managing Change

Solving the mystery of leading people through change.

Who is it for?

Managers who are facing the challenge of leading their team through change, and anyone wanting to learn best practice in this area.

Overview

This one day workshop introduces delegates to the collaborative people strategies to ensure change is managed in a planned, intelligent and sensitive way. Managers must actively understand and support their people, maintaining motivation and commitment through a period of uncertainty and anxiety. Experience the change curve model through an interactive team exercise.

Workshop Objectives:

- Identify the main components that are involved in planning change.
- Engage others to build their commitment to the change process.

One-to-one Coaching

Additional one-to-one coaching is available prior to the workshop to establish personal requirements and key objectives from the workshop. Subsequent one-to-one coaching sessions upon completion of the workshop provide support in applying the techniques and customising the approach to manage personal situations/issues.

Investment

Total investment for this one day workshop is £140 per person. Alternatively, this workshop can be delivered internally to your organisation for a total investment of £1154, irrespective of how many delegates from your organisation attend. This cost includes all relevant materials but excludes any costs associated with the venue.

ilm Accreditation (optional)

For an additional investment of £59.00 per person, and on successful completion of this workshop and associated action plan, the Institute of Leadership and Management will acknowledge the participant through the Development Award and twelve months ilm membership, which includes access to online support materials, study guides and career development support.

If you are interested in arranging a training workshop for yourself, or your organisation and would like further information please do not hesitate to contact us at: